From the Gusset

It was the Summer of 2004 and I was just finishing my third year of Theology in Rome – I had to make a discission, if I wanted to be ordained a transitional Deacon in Rome at St. Peter's Basilica or back home at the Cathedral of St. Peter's in Rockford. It was 'tradition' that Seminarians studying in Rome would be ordained to the Diaconate in Rome, but not until October at the start of their 4th year of Theology. Priests love to say, "I was ordained in St. Peter's Basilica in Rome." But you need to ask them, were they ordained a Deacon or a Priest in the Eternal City. There is just something about the bragging rights to say a man was ordained in Rome. Well, I really wanted to be ordained in St. Peter's, but I knew my family would not be able to come over for the Mass; and to tell you the truth, I just couldn't stand the thought of having to go through another Summer as an Acolyte and not being able to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism and Holy Matrimony, proclaim the Gospel, preach homilies, and minister at the Altar in Holy Mass. So, I decided I would get ordained a Deacon at home by Bishop Doran in Rockford in the Summer. After all, I could still say, "I was ordained at St. Peter's!" I was so glad (then and now) that I made the decision to be ordained a Deacon on June 12th in Rockford, because then I got assigned to St. Thomas the Apostle Parish in Crystal Lake and served under the famous Msgr. Hermes. Msgr. assigned me to do two or three dozen house blessings, to preach and serve Mass every Tuesday through Friday, and to preach and serve at the altar for at least one of the Sunday' Masses. I did several Baptisms as well! In fact, one of the young men being ordained a transitional Deacon this year, Ryan Nooraee, was one, whom I poured the water thrice over and baptized in the name of the Triune God!

Ryan will be ordained on Saturday June 1st with Ian Herrera, and Rockford will also celebrate the priesthood Ordinations of Grant Colborn and Jeffrey Filipski. Just think, if I had decided to be ordained in Rome with my classmates – I would never have been allowed to give the Sacrament of Baptism to Ryan – one of the other priests or permanent Deacons would have been assigned to Baptize Ryan and his younger brother! I'm telling you there is no experience on earth as glorious as giving a Sacrament of Jesus Christ to another human being. This year the Diocese is not ticketing the Ordination Mass, so if anyone would like to pray an Ordination Mass, which is one of the most joyous Masses in Christendom – feel free to come to the Cathedral of St. Peter 1243 North Church street, in Rockford at 11:00am on June 1st – the weekend of Corpus Christi. May Jesus Christ be praised now and forever! Happy Easter! Yours on the Path

Easter Retreat

Pope Benedict encouraged priests to conduct a Holy Hour with First Communicants before they received the blessed Sacrament for the first time.

Wouldn't it be something, if our First Communicants worked a Plenary Indulgence with their first ever reception of Holy Communion?!! To give them this honor, we will have a retreat on Saturday, May 25th. We will be out at St. Patrick's Church in Maytown at 10:00am for a Holy 1/2 Hour (one of the works for a Plenary Indulgence) and the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Then when they receive our Lord on Corpus Christi Sunday—they may tell our Lord, whom they are working this indulgence for! We will also be celebrating the Anniversaries of their taking of Religious Vows for two of the Daughters of Divine Love on June 2nd. All parishioners are invited to this retreat!

The Art and Architecture of our Catholic Churches

How is it that the Catholic Church where one worships God
—can be so influential on one's Faith!

West Brooklyn's St. Mary of the Assumption Church has its Tabernacle located at a side altar; whereas, the Churches in Sublette and Maytown have the Blessed Sacrament reserved in a Tabernacle in the Sanctuary behind the main altar. There are many prominent European Churches, which locate their Tabernacle at a side altar – and most notably, Cathedral Churches in the United States have a side altar Tabernacle. This is because these Churches have many tourists, who might fail to properly reverence Christ in the Eucharist, if the Tabernacle were at the main altar. Placing a Tabernacle at a side altar – away from the center of tourist traffic flow and at a place where the devout could still make a Holy Hour with our Lord behind the closed doors of the Tabernacle without being disturbed – became a good idea. I have always found it a pious rule of thumb, that if we see someone (especially if the person is someone, whom we love) disrespecting God out of ignorance that we ought to go out of our way to show our respect for God. For example, if we hear someone using God's name in vain, we quickly (and quietly) say a "Glory Be Prayer," or if someone fails to genuflect in their passing the Tabernacle – than we make sure we would genuflect when passing the Tabernacle. When my Dad's arthritis was crippling him at the end, I would genuflect for my Dad. The Code of Canon Law instructs the Rector of Churches to take care that, if the Tabernacle is at a side altar – then they should take diligence in decorating the side altar containing the Tabernacle above all others, so that by the appearance of the altar, the Faithful will be moved to greater piety and devotion to the most Holy Sacrament. West Brooklyn's Tabernacle is without veils (perhaps some talented seamstress reading this article could make a veil for our Tabernacle), and so we can readily see two shafts of wheat – one red in color the other blue. Whenever we see these two colors together, our religious minds think of Mary. Remember in ancient times, a woman identified herself by the color clothes she wore. Blue was the color of a Virgin, and red was the color of a Mother. Our Blessed Lady was both a Virgin and a Mother, and this is why iconographers often have Mary wearing both colors. When I was a Seminarian at St. Patrick's Church in Rochelle – they had a Tabernacle that was shaped like the Virgin Mary's womb out of which came the Body of Christ, our Lord. I am reminded of the Incarnation, every time I open the Tabernacle at St. Mary of the Assumption Church. Happy Easter!
